Dear New LA Board Members:

I am writing this evening with an update on the pending UTLA strike. In short, the following has occurred since my communication to you over the weekend:

- Monday night, UTLA announced that they had rejected additional bargaining proposals by the district. They are meeting again tomorrow.
- LAUSD has attempted to delay the strike by taking UTLA to court today on the grounds that they were not properly notified about the intent to strike on January 10.
- A strike will likely happen on January 10 or January 14 depending on the outcome of today's hearing.
- UTLA is reaching out to charter school teachers across the city with a correspondence asking for support. New LA teachers have received this letter. CCSA is providing a response, which we will share with our teachers.

In light of these updates, we are continuing preparations for a strike on Thursday. Kate and I met with Dr. Davis from Baldwin Hills Elementary School this morning to review plans. Principals provided briefings at faculty meetings today, and we will continue to update stakeholders as the situation unfolds. Of course, please let me know if you have any questions or would like access to additional resources.

Best wishes,
Brooke

Hi Peter,

Yes, it is highly likely that Baldwin Hills teachers will be picketing outside the school. We are preparing for picketing in front of or inside the parking lot, which is public property.

Best wishes,
Brooke
